

Mobile Media Ministry Policy and Conditions

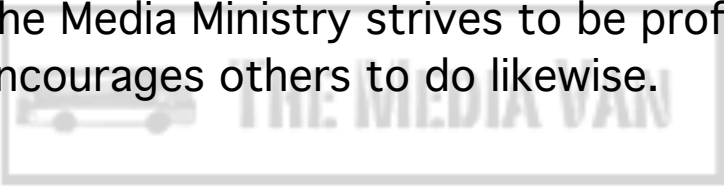

Below are listed the conditions and thoughts reflected by the Mobile Media Ministry to be adequate for any ministry opportunity. The Mobile Media Ministry issues this policy for the intent of fair and truthful communication between the interested parties and that of the ministry itself for the good of the community at large and the gospel of Christ. All of these conditions have been approved necessary by the team of the Mobile Media Van in retrospect of their past experiences.

"...for, 'Everyone who calls on the Name of the Lord will be saved.' How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone telling them? And how can anyone tell them unless they are sent? As it is written, 'How beautiful are the feet of those who bring the good news!'"

-Romans 10:13-15

Events will only be accepted/declined after the coordinating parties of said events accept this agreement. Please note that this is not a binding contract, only an agreement to the conditions of an independent ministry for a short interval. Please read carefully before consenting to agree.

*Please note that this agreement is subject to change without notice. Please renew agreement for each official event request.

1. The Mobile Media Ministry is here to serve the Lord God.
2. The Mobile Media Ministry values the importance of family and community.
3. The Mobile Media Ministry recognizes the law and will uphold it to the glory of God.
4. The Media Ministry strives to be professional and encourages others to do likewise.
5. The Mobile Media Ministry is able to function independently, but is always willing to accommodate.
6. The Mobile Media Ministry is eager, but careful, about accepting outside church/ministry invitations.

Conditions

Acknowledgement

- The Mobile Media Ministry recognizes all events that magnify the Name of Jesus as Lord and Christ and professes faith in the one and true Gospel, meaning that all mankind is sinful from birth and has fallen from the Law of God, the one and only true Creator of all things; and that God sent his one and only Son, Jesus, to live a perfect life on earth, and die a perfect death to redeem the whole of humanity from the control of sin and the Devil. The Mobile Media Ministry believes that the God of the Holy Bible is the ultimate authority of all things and the only one who can save souls and give eternal life; they also recognize all parties/events that acknowledge this or believe likewise, and that will allow free declaration of these facts.
- The Mobile Media Ministry welcomes all event requests, for the sake of featuring the Mobile Media Van in an outreach or ministry event, from either a coordinating party or personal reference.
- The Mobile Media Ministry welcomes all volunteers of the coordinating party who are eager to pray, worship, or provide assistance to the Mobile Media team at such events.

Planning Process

- All event and outreach requests are subject to close examination of the executive director and his team to be found legitimate and satisfactory. Acceptance of an event or outreach opportunity can only be issued after adequate event information is provided, agreement to all these conditions is secured, and approval by the Mobile Media Ministry's executive director is confirmed.
- All official requests must be submitted to the Mobile Media Ministry and approved at least one week in advance of the desired event or outreach date. All arrangements must be final no later than the day before the desired event.
- While personal references are appreciated, all official communication concerning an approved event must be between the Mobile Media Ministry and that of the coordinating party of the event. This will guarantee fair and clear commerce between parties during the planning process.

Rights Reserved

- The Mobile Media Ministry reserves the right to decline any desired event or outreach opportunity based on the commerce, information, or content given by the coordinating party that may be deemed incompatible with its previously stated beliefs, or if the ministry is unable to meet the needs of said event.
- The Mobile Media Ministry will not be held responsible for any actions or behavior deemed abusive or inappropriate by law by volunteers of the coordinating party. If any such action occurs and is left unchecked by the coordinating party, the Mobile Media Ministry reserves the right to take action against such behavior and report it to the appropriate authorities without the consent of the coordinating party.

Technical Services

- Not all technical equipment is compatible with the format of the Media Van. All Media Van equipment is adequate for outreach and will be used in any case. If the coordinating party of the desired event wants to incorporate their own media through the Media Van, all such media must be approved and compatible with the format of the Media Van before being used with the Mobile Media Ministry's equipment.

- Any visual content of the coordinating party that is to be shown through the Media Van must be approved by the executive director of the Mobile Media Ministry or its governing board. If none is available or approved, the content will be provided by the Mobile Media Ministry.
- Any volunteer technical personnel or equipment of the coordinating party must be approved by the executive director of the Mobile Media Ministry before any other technical action can be taken. If none is available or approved, all will be provided by the Mobile Media Ministry.

- If the coordinating party desires to use a presentation using media that incompatible with the format of the Media Van and its equipment, the Mobile Media Ministry offers to prepare said presentation on behalf of the coordinating party with the ministry's own resources. This offer stands as long as the coordinating party consents to a personal appointment with one of the Mobile Media team prior to the day before the presentation date.
- If the coordinating party desires any part of the desired event to be recorded/filmed and have copies made on their behalf by the Mobile Media Ministry, all required recording/filming equipment will be provided by the Mobile Media Ministry and the arrangements must be determined prior to the day before the desired event.

Payment

- The Mobile Media Ministry requests a gratuity offering during any point in the planning process or during the desired event as payment, covering the cost of event duration, mileage, maintenance, overhead, etc. If no such compensation is procurable, the Mobile Media Ministry's services will not be withheld.

Confirmation

- If the coordinating party finds these conditions to be disagreeable for a desired event, they forfeit the utilization of these services herein provided by the Mobile Media Ministry. If the coordinating party agrees to these conditions, the Mobile Media Ministry will uphold to all these services/processes that are utilized.

This agreement will be active from the date of agreement as submitted by the coordinating party to the date after the desired event.
